CHICKEN THIEF ADMITS GUILT

The Christmas chicken thief is in evidence and the plaudits of the poultry man rises loud in the land.

Last Saturday night Iwakami, a Janese, had thirteen chickens taken from his place on Alexander street near Beretania street.

A day or so later another Japanese living in the Aloha camp on King street reported to the police that he had had six chickens stolen.
Chief of Detectives McDuffie sent a man out on the case with the result that Lee Wah was rounded up and confessed to having committed the theft of the six. No trace of the lot of thirteen has been found.

Lee Wah is under arrest and two countrymen of his, Ah Chong and Lau Quon, are also being held for further investigation.

There is likely to be more chicken stealing before Christmas, and Mc-Duffie wishes to impress on all householders who raise chickens the desirability of seeing that their hen-houses are securely fastened every night.

Pacheco's Dandruff Killer will cure members.

An entertainment was given last night on board the cruiser West Virginia by the Oahu Young People's Union in honor of the entrance to Pearl Harbor of the flagship California.
Addresses were made by Chief Yeoman Emmons, George Paty and John Martin. The Kawaiahae church choir sang a number of Hawaiian songs and Miss Stone several college songs. Services will be held on board the West Virginia on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

THE NEW METAPHYSICAL MOVEMENT

(Contributed.)

It is probably quite generally known by the citizens of Honolulu that a center of metaphysical thought or Esoteric Christianity, has existed in this city for some time past, holding meetings in the hall of the Kilohana Art League. This new movement referred to above is for the purpose of placing this general work upon a more solid basis, and for enlarging its field of operation.

The main feature of this movement is primarily for the spread of truth and the development of the thought forces in man by lectures and classes for instruction. The truth referred to is not Estoretic or literal expoisition of the word, as usually presented.
The purpose of the movement is to take the higher and more universal ground of the Spirit, in short, to inaugurate a Christian University Center in the truest and broadest sense.

This revelation of truth, it will be seen by the instructions to be given, being universal or cosmic in its scope, is in perfect harmony with the deepest intuitive reason of man, with all scientific data, and with all sacred books of the world, especially with the Bible of both the old and the new testaments. It is primitive Christianity revived and presented to meet the conditions of this twentieth century.
Its purpose is to harmonize man with himself—his human with his divine—and thus to communicate the work of human redemption. In absolutely harmonizing the individual man, it enables him to overcome all failure in the business world, all disease of the physical and mental, all limitation of thought and all fear of death. The outworking of truth thus presented and lived is "Paradise Restored."

This movement is for the purpose of elevating the world of all social evil and of crime of every description by purifying the world's heart and lifting the thought of the world above the various evils. It embraces within its ample scope the purification of the individual, the family, the social, the commercial and the political.

Mrs. M. M. Hunter Jones, formerly of Toronto, Canada, who for many years has been engaged in the metaphysical work, and who for two years past successfully conducted the "Home of Truth" at Ocean Park, Cal., together with Rev. Dr. George F.
Weaver, for many years a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church, and for many years past a lecturer and instructor of metaphysics and modern psychology, will for the present constitute the leadership of this new movement.

In addition to the Monday evening meetings which in the future will be conducted by Dr. Weaver, and the Tuesday forenoon meetings, remaining unchanged as to leadership, there will be a Sunday afternoon lecture course for the public, addresses to be delivered by Dr. Weaver. Classes in various lines of truth will be organized later as demand for them may arise. Both Mrs. Jones and Dr.
Weaver are spiritual healers and are prepared to heal the sick and to give instruction in health and in the healing work.

On Sunday next, at 3:30 p. m., Dr.
Weaver will give his first lecture in the large hall of the Kilohana Art League, corner of Miller and Beretania streets. All progressive thinkers are cordially invited.

Stated notices of all meetings will hereafter appear in the religious columns of the various daily journals of the city.

Mrs. M. M. Hunter Jones and Dr.
George F. Weaver may be addressed at 1220 Kapiolani street, in the cottage next the home of Mr. Charles Hustace.

HOW MR. CHANG SLIPPED UP

Lee Wah Chang, the Chinese arrested yesterday on a charge of smuggling opium, slipped up because, although he has been in the habit of importing only small quantities of fruit, he was able to sell the fruit cheaper than could his big competitors who bring in much larger quantities and consequently should be able to buy more cheaply than he can. Such is the statement made this morning by United States District Attorney Breckons.

"We have had our eye on him for some time," said Mr. Breckons, for the reason that he was selling fruit so much cheaper than the other importers, though he was bringing it in in small quantities.

Lee Wah Chang waived examination this morning and his case will come before the federal grand jury when it meets again after the holidays. The prisoner will probably be released on bond today.
